White Coat Sponsorship

Serving as a White Coat Sponsor is an exciting and rewarding way to support a medical student on their journey to become a physician. Alumni, parents, faculty, corporate partners, foundations, employees, friends, and community members are invited to sponsor one or more medical students with a $1000 donation. With the sponsor donations, at the annual White Coat Ceremony each medical student receives their first white coat, a WMed-branded stethoscope, tuning fork, reflex hammer, and apparel needed for coursework and clinical applications. Funds also go toward student scholarships to reduce the financial burden of medical education. In addition, the sponsor writes a personal note of congratulations to the student they are sponsoring that is placed in the pocket of the student's white coat. Sponsoring an entering medical student often results in a special bond between the sponsor and the student. We thank our White Coat Sponsor campaign co-chairs, Steve and Amy McKiddy, for their leadership of this year's program.
